

Seeking a new Board Member

The Hanover Public Library is seeking a dedicated local who is willing to become a member of our Board of Directors. Board members are critical elements of our library team and we could not accomplish all we do without their constant assistance. Individuals who are interested in applying please contact Carolyn Caskanette (C.E.O./Chief Librarian) by email: ccaskanette@hanover.ca.

Paperback Book Sale

Join us on June 27 & 28 in the Civic Centre Community Hall for a smaller version of our Booksale. This event will be paperback novels only and will be by donation. From heart-pounding thrillers to heartwarming romances, there's something for every reader. Don't miss your chance to build your summer reading pile without breaking the bank! CASH ONLY EVENT.

Frauds and Scams

Join us Thursday, July 3 at 10:30am for an important program on how to spot and avoid frauds and scams. From phone and email schemes to identity theft and online traps, learn how to protect yourself and your loved ones with practical tips from the Hanover Police Department. Knowledge is your best defense! Register at the Library today!

Library Closed For Canada Day

The library will be closed Tuesday July 1st for Canada Day and will reopen at our normal time on Wednesday July 2nd.
